DANIELE INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S ANSWERS TO COUNTERCLAIM PLAINTIFF'S FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

REQUEST NO. 1: Specimens of all documents and things on which plaintiff has used or intends to use the DANIELE trademark, including but not limited to: promotional and advertising materials, including but not limited to advertisements, brochures, fliers, handbooks, manuals, catalogs, books, articles, pamphlets, brochures, workbooks, labels, wrappers, cartons, containers, fliers, business establishment signs, posters, telephone directory advertisements, business cards, press releases, Internet web sites, e-mail communications and other electronically-available materials; photographs; federal, state or local government filings, licenses, applications or registrations (other than that at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office); mailings; trade shows; personal contacts; telephone calls; Web sites; signs; letterhead; envelopes and business cards.

RESPONSE: See the attached documents labeled as No. 1 depicting the DANIELE logo on stationery, packaging wrappers, printed stickers and a photograph taken from a trade show display.

REQUEST NO.2: Copies of all documents showing all forms in which the DANIELE trademark has been used by plaintiff in commerce.

RESPONSE: The DANIELE logo is placed on all meat products that are sold. The logos appear in request No. 1. Additionally, invoices sent to customers up until approximately 2003 would have a copy of the logo on the upper corner of the invoice as reflected in the representative sample which is Invoice No. 61525. This is labeled as No. 2.

REQUEST NO.3: Copies of all documents showing the forms in which the DANIELE trademark has been ordered, received or generated by plaintiff, whether or not it has used them in commerce.

RESPONSE: See copy of the registration certificate from the U.S. Trademark Office as well as the printed material from the electronic search of the U.S. Trademark Office attached as No. 3. See also the response to request No. 1.
